Continuing west to Mount Gambier, we'll venture into South Australia's Limestone Coast Region, visiting Coonawarra and Wratttonbully. Then, it's north to Adelaide, making our way through McLaren Vale and the Barossa Valley – home to some of Australia's most celebrated winemakers, to savor a broad array of quality South Australian wines and cuisine. Then, a flight from Adelaide to Sydney sets us up for a fantastic day of city touring, followed by a night of grand celebration to wrap up our trip.

The travel is by luxury bus and by air. The lodging is a selection of high-end boutique properties and resorts in the country and on the vineyards, and in the city, beautiful hotels in just the right locations. The wine is the best in each region, with many of our stops hosted by the winemakers and their families. The food is an eclectic mix of fine dining, farm-to-table casual, and local eateries known for great food and lovely people. You don't have to be a foodie to understand and appreciate the culinary array of cuisine you'll enjoy. But if you are one, you'll know you're at the right tables.

This trip is hand-crafted and designed to deliver an Australian travel experience that is simply not offered by touring companies and travel agencies. So, come with us and discover an Oz that most Australians rarely get to see. We're taking reservations for this fascinating adventure – an extraordinary travel experience unlike any you've ever had.
