Croatia 2026

September 20 – 27, 2026

Dubrovnik, Pelješac Peninsula, Korčula Island, Mali Ston, Krka National Park, Split

Croatia 2026 immerses you in the best wine, dining, sightseeing, and cultural activities along the Dalmatian Coast. From UNESCO World Heritage Sites and iconic landmarks to remote islands and coastal seascapes, you'll delight in the beautiful sights and gracious people, who together are the beating heart of this historic nation – the Jewel of the Adriatic.

Korčula Island

A perfect balance of cultural discovery and wine exploration, this trip features some of Croatia's most sought-after destinations, including the historic Old Town of Dubrovnik, the Pelješac Peninsula, Korčula Island, and the renowned Bibich Winery.

Open-Air Market in Dubrovnik

Plenty of Leisure Time. As you step into the vivid mosaic of Croatian experiences, you'll discover what so many world travelers love about this country. Explore the shops, restaurants, and sights in the cities, towns, and villages.

READ ON...

Exceptional food, wine, and scenery... everywhere. Throughout the journey, you'll enjoy an impressive variety of traditional Croatian dishes, modern fare, and a fantastic array of regional wines from across the country. There are also cooking classes, time spent with the winemakers and their families, plus a mix of fine dining and casual meals.

Among the several wineries we'll visit are Rizman Winery and Bibich Winery. There you'll enjoy exclusive wine tastings and curated food pairings with indigenous varietals like Plavac Mali and Grk.

Our trip also includes an exquisite indulgence in the bounty of the Adriatic. We'll experience a tasting tour at Mali Ston's world-renowned oyster farms – the only place in the world where the Ostrea Edulis oyster species is farmed.

A private guide will lead us through Krka National Park, known for its series of seven waterfalls, including 83-foot-high Roški Slap, and the park's stunning array of pristine pools, trails, forests, and a wide range of wildlife. One highlight is the Krka Monastery, built above ancient Roman catacombs.
